

Nathan Tsukroff

Gray Rec Photography Instructor

Nathan Tsukroff has been a working photographer since 1976, starting with a small daily newspaper in Connecticut. He photographed high school and college seniors across the country for 14 years then spent nearly eight years creating glamour portraits at cosmetology schools.

Along with his wife, Susan, he has seen well over 700 weddings through the lens of his camera.

After working for so long for other studios, Nathan and Susan decided “it was time to work for ourselves,” and settled in Gray, ME. “We like the country atmosphere while being close to a big city,” Nathan said.

He has taught numerous other professionals, and enjoys sharing his knowledge with photographers of any ability. Although he has a wealth of experience, “I always learn from everyone I meet,” he said.
